

IN THE BEGINNING
GOD

...while the morning stars
sang together and all the angels shouted for joy (Job 38:7)

In the beginning God
created the heavens
and the earth. 2 Now
the earth was
formless and empty,
darkness was over
the surface of the deep, and the Spirit
of God was hovering
over the waters.

(Genesis 1:1-2)

'Where were you
when I laid the
earth's foundation?
Tell me, if you
understand.
Who marked off its dimensions? Surely
you know!
Who stretched a
measuring line across
it?

On what were its
footings set,
or who laid its
cornerstone -
while the morning
stars sang together
and all the angels
shouted for joy?

(Job 38:4-7)

IN THE BEGINNING
GOD

In the beginning
GOD
created the sky and the Earth.

The Earth was smooth and round like a ball of play-dough.
It was quiet, and asleep,
wrapped in darkness like a thick, woolly blanket on a shivery cold night.

All the Angels looking on held their breath -
"When would the LORD God wake up the sleeping Earth?"

Then at last God spoke, and all the Angels got ready to shout for joy because of what God was doing!
What was going to happen?
We'll find out next week :)
